1. The Coalition on Human Needs has released a letter stating the four #SAVE4All principles that advocates, including ( insert your organization) is asking the new Congress to follow. These four principals include: protecting & assisting low-income and other vulnerable people, investing in broadly shared economic growth and jobs, increasing revenues from fair sources & seeking savings from reducing waste in the government. By following these principles, we can create an America that works for everyone, not just those at the very top. <http://bit.ly/2g9MbeM>
